About the Event

If you are ready to Elevate Your Leadership Game and connect with Dynamic Women in Procurement then the Female Leaders in Procurement Summit is for you.

This is set to be THE premier event for female procurement professionals looking to grow and develop their skills whilst playing a part in elevating women shaking up the sector.

Speakers

We have three expert speakers for you

Laura Scarfe

Procurement & EQ Expert

Specialising in CIPS procurement training, negotiation, influencing and emotional intelligence, Laura has designed and delivered training programs for multi-million-pound companies including an organisation set up under UN Charter.

Lucy Sheridan

Comparison Coach

The world's first and only Comparison Coach™ who, through her private practice, course and membership has helped thousands of people go from 'compare and despair' to #comparisonfree.

Caroline Dakin

Resilience Expert

Caroline specialises in developing people to reach their full potential through increasing their levels of resilience. She has worked with some of the UK's largest companies and brands to deliver resilience workshops drawing on neuroscience, which inspires long-lasting behaviour change.

Savita Mace

Chief Procurement Officer

Savita is an authentic, experienced and well-respected leader with over 20 years in Procurement and Supply Chain across oil and gas, consultancy, manufacturing, healthcare and pharma. Prior to joining NHS UHSussex, Savita was a Director at AstraZeneca in global Procurement and Operations.
